Welcome Home Veterans Appreciation Day

Celebrating Veterans of the past and present.

June 13, 2011 (Erie, PA) - Tickets are now available for the annual Welcome Home Veterans Appreciation Day at the Jerry Uht Park coming up Saturday, July 23. Erie VA hosts this annual event to thank military service members and Veterans for their service and to connect Veterans with the health care benefits they deserve. VA staff will be on site at the ballpark to answer questions about health care, benefits, and more.

When: Saturday, July 23, 2011

Picnic dinner starts at 5:30 p.m.
Game starts at 7:05 p.m.
Fireworks start at dusk

Where: Jerry Uht Park – Erie SeaWolves Stadium. Click here* for directions.

Who: The Welcome Home event is for military service members, returning Veterans, and Veterans of all eras. Family, friends, and community members are also encouraged to attend the game to show their support for local Veterans.

Cost: Free to military service members and Veterans. Discounted tickets are available for friends and family.

Get Your Free Ticket: Call Erie VA's Returning Veterans Program at 814-860-2567 or stop by the Returning Veterans Program office located in the basement of the Erie VA Medical Center to pick up a free voucher for the picnic and the SeaWolves game. Vouchers must be redeemed for tickets at the SeaWolves Box Office no later than July 15. Tickets will not be available the day of the event.

Last year more than 1,000 Veterans and their families attended the event and Erie VA looks forward to welcoming even more this year!
